Mariko: Hi, Ellen. My sister, Mayumi, called my mother from Australia last night.

Ellen: Oh, really? She is a college student. And she is studying English in Australia now. Is that right?

Mariko: Yes. She will come back to Japan next Wednesday. My father will take me to the station to meet her on that day. .

Ellen: Sure. Oh, wait a minute, Mariko. Next Wednesday? I think we have something to do on that day. Let's check the schedule. Please look at this pocketbook, Mariko. This is the schedule from tomorrow to next Sunday. We have a plan for next Wednesday. Do you remember that?

Mariko: Oh, now I remember that. We made a plan to go to a department store to buy some birthday presents for my mother on that day.

Ellen: What the station next Wednesday?

Mariko: She will get to the station about noon. So we can't go shopping on that day. I think we have to change our schedule, Ellen.

Ellen: That's right. Well, how about the day before the party?

Mariko: I don't think so. I think we will be busy on that day because we have to prepare for the party.

Ellen: I see. Then, I have nothing to do the day after tomorrow. What do you think, Mariko?

Mariko: Great. Let's go shopping together on . Well, I have a good idea, Ellen. Let's make a birthday cake with my sister. She can make cakes very well. She will help us.

Ellen: That's a good idea. I'm sure the birthday cake will make your mother happy. Mariko, a song at the party? I would like to sing my favorite song for your mother.

Mariko: Of course, you can. I'm sure my mother will like it.

【3】 次の英文を読んで、あとの問1～問7に答えなさい。

Shinji is a high school student. He is seventeen years old. Last winter he went to New Zealand for two weeks to study English. He stayed there with a family. There were three people in the family. They were Mr. Norman, Mrs. Norman and their son, Bill. Bill was as old as Shinji.

One day, at breakfast, Bill said, "It is very popular to go fishing in New Zealand. Do you like to go fishing, Shinji?" Shinji said, "Yes. I often go fishing with my family in Japan." Then Mr. Norman said, "That's good. We have a boat. Do you want to go fishing with us in the sea tomorrow, Shinji?" Shinji said, "Yes. I often go fishing in the river and lake, but not in the sea. I really want to go fishing with you. Thank you."

The next day, Shinji went fishing with Bill and his family on the boat. The weather was very good. There were no clouds in the blue sky and the sun was shining. The wind was so cool. And the sea was blue and clear. Everything was so beautiful. Shinji felt very happy. Bill said, "Look, Shinji. Some dolphins over there. That one has just jumped!" Shinji said, "Wow, great! This is my first time to see dolphins in the sea. That's so exciting!" Then Mr. Norman said, "OK. Let's start now."

After about twenty minutes, Shinji felt something on his rod. Bill said, "Shinji, I think a fish is eating your bait." Then Shinji got a big fish. He said, "Oh, this is very big. ① I have (this a like never fish got big)." Bill said, "You are great, Shinji. I should take a picture of you." Bill and his family also got some fish. At lunch time, Mr. Norman and Mrs. Norman cooked some of the fish they got. Under the blue sky, Shinji ate them with Bill and his family on the boat. Shinji was very happy.

One night, Shinji showed a yukata to Bill and his family. Shinji said, "This is a present for Mrs. Norman. It is a traditional Japanese dress called yukata in Japanese." Mrs. Norman said, "Oh, thank you very much, Shinji. This is very beautiful." Shinji said, "A yukata is a kind of kimono. You can see a lot of people in yukata at summer festivals in Japan." Shinji taught Mrs. Norman how to put on the yukata. When Mrs. Norman put on the yukata, she said, "How do ② I look?" Shinji said, "You look great, Mrs. Norman." And then Mrs. Norman said, "This is nice. But it is difficult for me to walk." They all laughed. Bill and his family learned a lot about Japan from Shinji.

Shinji is now in Japan. He still remembers many things he did with Bill and his family in New Zealand. He wants to go fishing in the beautiful sea again in New Zealand.
