(問題 A)

Kanako : Excuse me, Mr. Brown. Is this your pen? I found it on the desk.

Mr. Brown: Oh, yes. Thank you, Kanako. Well, did you enjoy my first class?

Kanako : Yes. I enjoyed it very much. You told us a lot of things about Australia.
It's a very big country. I want to visit your country. You also showed us a lot of pictures.

Mr. Brown: Did you like them, Kanako?

Kanako : Yes. I liked the picture of the beautiful sea very much. Some people were swimming in the sea in that picture. I want to swim in that sea, too.

Mr. Brown: That sea is really beautiful. Some people often walk with their dogs by that sea.

Kanako : That's interesting. Well, I saw a small dog in one of the pictures, Mr. Brown.
Was that your dog?

Mr. Brown: That's right. I had some dogs when I was in Australia. I did many things for them.
For example, I made some houses for them. I like dogs very much. But I don't have any dogs now. How about you, Kanako?

Kanako : Well, I have two dogs. They are very big. I love them very much.

Mr. Brown: I see. What are their names?

Kanako : They are John and Jack. They are three years old. In the evening, I walk with them for 30 minutes every day.

Mr. Brown: Oh, you walk with your dogs every day! You really like your dogs, Kanako.

Kanako : Yes. I feel happy when I am with them. I want to walk with my dogs by the beautiful sea in Australia. Oh, Mr. Brown, I'm sorry. I have to go now. The next class will start soon. I'm interested in the story about your country. Can I visit you after lunch? I want to talk to you.

Mr. Brown: Sure. Please visit me after lunch. See you then, Kanako.
