問題A

Kenji : Hello, Ms. Smith.

Ms. Smith: Oh. Hi, Kenji. Where are you going?

Kenji : I'm going to a baseball game. I will watch the game with my father this afternoon.

Ms. Smith: That's nice. I sometimes went to baseball games with my parents when I was young.
Where is your father now?

Kenji : He is waiting at the next station. He told me to be at the station at eleven thirty.
This morning he went to a computer shop near the station. He went there to find a good computer.

Ms. Smith: Oh, I see. So you're going to meet your father at the station soon. What time will the baseball game start?

Kenji : It will start at two o'clock. We have a lot of time before the game, so we are going to eat lunch together. After that we will go to the game.

Ms. Smith: Great. Have a good time with your father.

Kenji : Thank you. Well, Ms. Smith, where are you going?

Ms. Smith: I'm going to the movies with some of my friends. I'm going to meet them at the next station, too. We will watch a Japanese movie this afternoon.
I love movies.

Kenji : A Japanese movie? Really? I love movies, too, and I often watch movies of other countries. I usually enjoy them in Japanese. It is easy for me because I can hear Japanese.

Ms. Smith: Do you think so? If you want to learn English more, it is very useful to enjoy movies in English. Why don't you try it?

Kenji : OK, Ms. Smith. Please tell me about good English movies next time.

Ms. Smith: Of course! There are many good movies. I hope you like them.
