問題 A

Takeshi : Hello, Ms. White. Can I talk to you now?

Ms. White: Sure. What's up?

Takeshi : We'll make a speech about our school life in your class. I'm going to talk about classes or clubs. But I'm still thinking.

Ms. White: Don't worry, Takeshi. Well, what classes do you like?

Takeshi : I like English, Japanese and math. I like English the best.

Ms. White: Oh, I'm glad to hear that. Then, why do you like English?

Takeshi : Well, I don't know why, but I want to talk with many people from different countries.

Ms. White: I see. It's wonderful to talk with those people. OK, then, what clubs are you in?

Takeshi : I'm in the basketball club. I enjoy it after school every day.

Ms. White: Really? I was a member of a basketball club, too. I played it for six years when I was a student. I've made many good friends.
When did you start playing basketball?

Takeshi : I started playing it when I became a junior high school student.
When I watched a basketball game on TV, it was very exciting so I wanted to play it.
I practiced it very hard with my friends. They sometimes helped me and I sometimes helped them. I think it's very important.

Ms. White: Good. You have learned the important thing through playing basketball.
Well, I think you can tell your friends about it. In your speech, it's important to have the thing you want to tell your friends.

Takeshi : I see. I'll make a speech about the thing I've learned through playing basketball.

Ms. White: Great. By the way, do you remember how to make a good speech?

Takeshi : Yes. First, I have to practice speaking many times before a speech. Then, it's also important to look at my friends' eyes when I'm speaking. Oh, Ms. White, can I show them some pictures of my games?

Ms. White: Of course. I think your friends will enjoy your speech.
